GOODWILL CAREER CENTERS

A resource for job seekers, employers, and the community

Anyone- no matter your economic status, background, age, educational level, or place of residency- can visit GWISR's Carrollton Center and receive supportive employment services. All services are FREE and funded through the sales of your gently used donations in our Retail Store. We provide a vast range of support to individuals seeking career placement and companies seeking qualified applicants. Our vision is to empower people with skills and opportunities to live fulfilled lives.

Individuals can:

- Learn how to prepare an effective resume
- Fax and e-mail applications and resumes
- Research educational advancement and financial development opportunities
- Make copies and use phones to call employers
- Use staff to assist with computer usage and job searches
- Connect with local resources

Employers can:

- Use Career Center staff to pre-screen job applicants
- Host recruitment fairs and orientations in our classrooms and conference rooms
- Interview applicants in our classrooms and conference rooms
