

Our Mission

The Carrollton Housing Authority Abstinence Education Program is committed to continuing efforts in promoting and providing abstinence until marriage education to community youth, schools, and organizations through innovative approaches. Our expectation is to eliminate the risks of sexually transmitted diseases and out-of-wedlock pregnancies, and to encourage a sustained success in the life of the next generation.

WHAT IS ABSTINENCE EDUCATION?

The Abstinence Education Program is a sexual risk avoidance program specifically designed for adolescents in grades 6th– 12th.

The primary purpose of the Abstinence Education Program is to provide holistic abstinence education to adolescents and teens in a safe, youth friendly, nonjudgmental environment. In addition to abstinence education, the program character education, refusal skills training, education on goal setting, and planning for the future.
